Sainsbury's

Guidance for 2024/25

Profit

- We expect retail underlying operating profit growth of between £1,010 million and £1,060 million, growth of between five per cent and 10 per cent
- We expect net Financial Services contribution of between break even and £15 million

Finance costs

- We expect underlying net finance costs of between £310 million and £320 million, including £260 million lease interest

Space

- We expect to open three supermarkets and around 25 new convenience stores, with four supermarkets and three to five convenience stores to close
- We expect to open around eight Argos stores inside Sainsbury's and close around 15-20 Argos standalone stores
- We expect the standalone Argos store estate will reduce to around 190 stores by March 2025, and we expect to have 450-460 Argos stores inside Sainsbury's supermarkets as well as 480-500 Argos collection points

Depreciation and amortisation

- We expect retail underlying depreciation and amortisation of around £1.15 billion, including around £0.4 billion right of use asset depreciation

Tax rate

- We expect an underlying tax rate of around 30 per cent

Capital allocation

- We have committed to a progressive dividend policy from the start of 2024/25 and to the commencement of a share buyback programme, with £200 million of share capital to be bought back over the course of the next financial year

Capital expenditure

- We expect core retail cash capital expenditure (excluding Financial Services) in 2024/25 to be £800-£850 million, with an additional £70 million of strategic investment in our EV charging business

Retail free cash flow

- We expect to generate at least £500 million of retail free cash flow in 2024/25, in line with our commitment of generating at least £1.6bn of retail free cash flow over the next three years

Net Debt

- We continue to target leverage of net debt to EBITDA of 3.0x to 2.4x

Pension

- We expect total pension scheme cash contributions to be around £45 million
